You are free to download, copy, translate or adapt this story and use the illustrations as long as you attribute in the following way:

Animals get legs

Author - Mutugi Kamundi
Adaptation - African Storybook
Illustration - Wiehan de Jager
Language - English
Level - First words

© African Storybook Initiative 2015 Creative Commons: Attribution 4.0 Source www.africanstorybook.org

Animals get legs
African Storybook
Wiehan de Jager

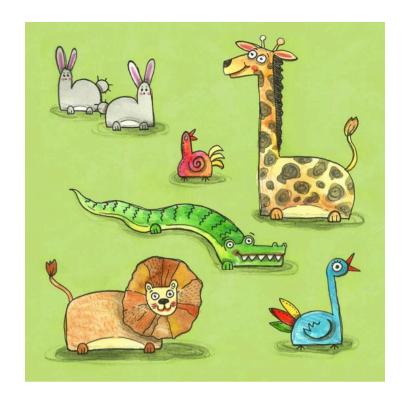

From that day, Snake still waits to get legs.

Long ago, animals had no legs.

Maguru had given legs only to people.

Maguru did not find any legs for Snake.

Snake said to Maguru, "I over-slept."

Maguru decided to give legs to every animal.

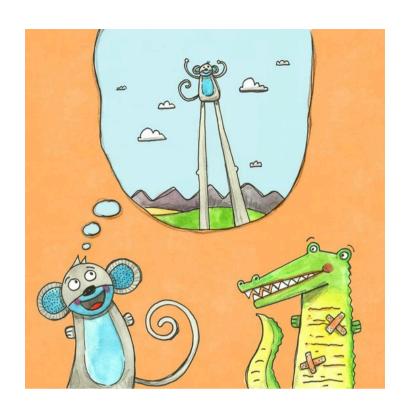

The animals wanted legs to walk and run.

After Millipede, Snake came begging, "Please give me some legs."

Millipede said happily, "I will move faster than others."

It was hard for them to crawl.

When the day came, different animals crawled to Maguru's house.

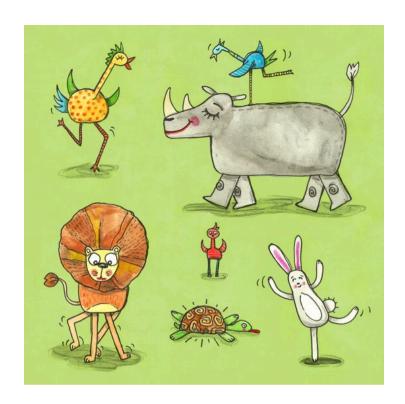

Maguru gave Millipede all the remaining legs.

Millipede was the last animal on the line.

Maguru gave legs to animals and birds.

Some animals danced, while others fell down.

They said, "We will never crawl again."