Baboon's orders
African Storybook
Isaac Okwir

The baboon chief died. His followers were hurt, but they lived.

Don was a big baboon. He was a bully.

He was the baboon chief.

Don fell down, over a cliff. They all copied him.

"This is too tight!" "This is too tight," they copied.

His followers gave him a special cloth.

"I will wear this on my head," said Don.

"This hurts," said Don.
"This hurts," they copied.

"Everyone follow my orders. Do not question me!" shouted Don.

So, the followers followed their chief. If Don jumped, everyone jumped.

But the band on Don's head was too tight.
